Creative Cultural Producer | Strategist | Arts Advocate | Webinar Facilitator

BIO

Shekhinah B. is an award-winning creative strategist. As a recipient of the Preserving Diverse Cultures award from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, she has made a significant impact by demonstrating excellence in cultural preservation as both the founder and director of Sistahs Attune (A vocal collective) of The Women's Coalition for Empowerment, Inc. Through successful art presentation and program management, she has successfully delivered multiple high-quality themed events accessible to the public. Best known for delivering innovative thought-provoking content conveying creative concepts in cross-cultural mediums, infusing multimedia, live performance, and instrumentation. She stays connected to Afro-centric art and culture with specializations in vocal performance within the following genres; Jazz, Soul, R&B, Funk, Afrobeat and World music. Her experiences have allowed her to foster connections with notable arts institutions such as the Barnes Foundation, the Rotunda, and Small But Mighty Arts. Sistahs Attune has received notable recognition in Philly News and multiple live broadcasts via Philly CAM and WRTI FM Temple Radio. The creator of the Art Economic Empowerment series, a workshop educating emerging artists on how to make their passions profitable. Since 2016, she has connected artists to paid performance opportunities highlighting their talents. She aims to continue enhancing workforce development outlets within the arts.
